

Fly Fish TV "How To" Video Series

SMALLMOUTH FLY TACTICS

with Joe Warren

Joe Warren is a great fly angler and tier, known for his glass bead patterns. He has spent years refining his smallmouth bass fishing techniques on rivers, streams, lakes, and reservoirs. Joe's articles are published in numerous magazines, and he does a variety of fly fishing and tying presentations.

Some respectable smallmouth are landed in this video. Most importantly, you learn where to find them. Joe will help you understand the relationship between water temperatures and fishing depths. He explains what tactics to use throughout the angling season, emphasizing pre- and post-spawn strategies.

Discover the variety of unique flies that Joe uses for smallmouth. Streamers, crayfish, poppers, dries, attractors, nymphs, and even hair worms get a look. See how he rigs smallmouth leader systems and adds weight. Watch as Joe demonstrates how to effectively fish different lines at different depths.
